Central Intelligence Group

[REDACTED]
Reference is made to the case of Miss -----, who received a War Service indefinite appointment, subject to investigation, to the position of Editorial Assistant, Federal Communications Commission, on February 8, 1944, and who is presently employed with the Central Intelligence Group.

Information received from reliable sources during investigation of Miss ----- was to the effect that she was pro-Communist. Miss -----'s employment background discloses that from approximately 1930 to 1943 she has been employed both in the United States and the Soviet Union by Soviet organizations. At one time she went to Russia for the expressed purpose of marrying a Soviet citizen. During the course of the investigation certain activities were disclosed which established that her continued employment constituted a serious threat to security.

Miss -----'s claim that she is actually anti-Communist is not supported by the information which has been received. In addition, misleading educational claims made in her application suggest that her veracity is questionable.

On the basis of all the facts in the case, it has been determined that there is a reasonable doubt concerning her loyalty and that she is unsuitable for Federal employment. Therefore, Miss ----- has been rated ineligible, and any and all pending applications and eligibilities existing on registers have been cancelled, and your office is instructed to separate her from the service. If Miss ----- wishes to appeal the Commission's decision or your office desires to reopen the case, the Commission's Board of Appeals and Review should be notified by her or by your office within thirty days from the date of receipt of this letter. If no appeal is received within the thirty-day period, separation must be effected immediately thereafter. If an appeal is submitted, your office may, in its discretion, retain Miss ----- in the service pending the outcome of the appeal.

The procedure prescribed by Section 1 of Temporary Civil Service Rule XII is not applicable in effecting her separation.

Please advise the Commission of the date of Miss -----'s separation from the service.

By direction of the Commission:

Very respectfully,

Mr. C. Hull
Executive Assistant

c.c. Miss -----
